

THE AMERICAN STORY . . . The story of their own America is being instilled in the youth of the area with B'nai B'rith's program "Dolls for Democracy." The dolls, dressed to represent great Americans, are being shown to children's groups and their stories are related by a "story lady," in this case Mrs. Robert Waldman. Here Mrs. Waldman tells the story of Abe Lincoln to Beth and David Chertock. Other famous Americans represented are Emma Lazarus, who wrote the inscription on the Statue of Liberty; Jackie Robinson, first negro baseball player, and Father Flanagan of Boys Town fame. The program is available for all youth groups. (Press-Herald Photo)

'Dolls for Democracy'

Patriotic Program Slated for B'nai B'rith

A presentation of the B'nai B'rith "Dolls for Democracy" will take place Wednesday Nov. 18 at 8 p.m. before the membership of the Southview Chapter, B'nai B'rith Women at the home of Mrs. Howard M. Milstein, 5522 Konya Dr., Torrance.

This unique program has been witnessed by over 2,500 children in the Los Angeles area. A "Story Lady" is sent out upon request, with a set of dolls. These dolls are small replicas of famous Americans and the stories she tells are geared to the understanding of the youngsters. The narration describes highlights in the lives of each doll, with a moral that it takes all kinds of people of different races, religions and nationalities to make America.

Mrs. Robert Waldman, Southview Chapter "Story Lady" will demonstrate the dolls of Abraham Lincoln, Jackie Robinson, Father Flanagan and Emma Lazarus, telling their stories. Anyone wishing more information regarding this program may call Mrs. Robert Waldman. Mrs. Waldman has announced that she and her committee will be glad to present the program in the schools or before groups and clubs of children.

Mrs. Harry Schachter, adult education chairman, will present a talk on Chanukah, Feast of Lights, which begins Sunday, Nov. 29. She will speak of the origin, customs and traditions of Chanukah, through the ages. Her personal observance of Chanukah in Israel will be most interesting.

Mrs. Doris Klein, program chairman, announces that the remainder of the program will be on Chanukah.

FOR YMCA BUILDING FUND . . . Pilot Club of Torrance is staging a progressive dinner party Saturday evening with proceeds to go to the building fund of the local YMCA. Cocktails will be served at the home of Lucille Sherwood, 21023 Amie, Apt. 18, after which guests will go to the John Whittington home, 1635 Maple, for the entree. Next stop will be the Recreation Center on Torrance Blvd., where dessert will be served with special entertainment including a song fest. Plotting table setups are, from left, Ida Hechinger, Golda Beight, Adele Burchfield, and Mildred Mitchell, as Laila Bowen serves tea. Reservations for the affair, open to the public, must be made with Mrs. Adele Burchfield. (Press-Herald Photo)

SHARON RADI
... Accepts Ring
(Portrait by Seeman)

Engagement Announced

Miss Sharon Radi will become the bride of Capt. Richard R. Dawson on Jan. 10 in a ceremony at the First Lutheran Church in Torrance.

The announcement of the engagement and approaching wedding of their daughter was revealed to family members at a party last Sunday evening given by Mr. and Mrs. Norman Radi, 2032 Middlebrook Rd.

The bride-elect was graduated from Torrance High School in 1962 after which she attended El Camino College. Miss Radi recently returned from a four-month tour of Europe. She is employed by Vernitron Corp.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Dawson, 1812 Reynosa Dr., Torrance, was graduated from Torrance High School in 1956. He attended Occidental College prior to entering the United States Air Force in which he will make a career. Capt. Dawson is now stationed at the Air Force Base at Lincoln, Neb.

Patti-Jean Soper Now Mrs. Robert Lee Milby

Two white trumpet baskets filled with white chrysanthemums, stock and gladoli decorated the altar of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church for the two o'clock wedding on Saturday, Nov. 7, when Miss Patti-Jean Soper became the bride of Robert Lee Milby of Lomita.

Mrs. Roy Davis Soper, 22812 Fern Ave., is the mother of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Arith Stone of Buda, Ill.

Escorted to the altar by her eldest brother, Charles Soper, the bride wore a floor-length gown of peau de soie. Her fingertip veil was secured by two peau de soie flowers enhanced with pearl drops and she carried a bouquet of glamelias, orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Judy Long served as the matron of honor wearing a gold brocade gown and carrying bronze chrysanthemums.

Ronald Lee Soper performed the duties of best man and Alan Cantrell was usher.

Rev. Hugh R. Percy, pastor, conducted the double ring marriage ceremony.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's mother and the couple spent a honeymoon at Lake Arrowhead. They are now living in Lomita.

The new Mrs. Milby was graduated from South High School in Torrance. Her husband is a graduate of Western High in Buda, Ill. He completed his service with the United States Navy on Oct. 21 having recently returned from a tour of duty in the Far East.

Honored by TKE Alumni

Mr. and Mrs. William Crooker of Miraleste, formerly of Torrance, were special guests at the Tau Kappa Epsilon Alumni dinner dance at the Officers Club at Fort McArthur Saturday evening. The Crookers were especially honored since their daughter, Beverly, was chosen "Little Sister" by the USC Teke chapter.

Beverly also attended the dance with her escort David Duthie of Miraleste.

MRS. ROBERT L. MILBY
... At Home in Lomita
(Portrait by Seeman)

Eastern Star Installation Saturday Eve

Torrance Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold its annual installation on Saturday evening, Nov. 21 at 8 p.m. at the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Lois Lougee will be installed as worthy matron and Verne St. John, worthy patron. They will succeed Harriett Warnick, worthy matron and Vincent Villenave, worthy patron.

Minnesota Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Russell G. Smith of Redondo Beach entertained with dinner at the Smith Bros. Indian Village restaurant in Torrance for Messrs. and Mmes. Earl Gardner of St. Paul, Minn., and Lester Chaddis of Hollywood Riviera. Mrs. Gardner is the sister of Mrs. Smith and a former resident of the South Bay.

At Parish Annex Sunday

Nativity Mothers to Stage Holiday Bazaar

"Browse and Buy" will be the theme for the holiday Bazaar to be held by the Nativity Mothers Club on Sunday, Nov. 22, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Nativity Parish Annex.

Co-chairmen Mrs. William Korcheny and Mrs. Gilbert Bihn have announced all items including many Christmas decorations, aprons, place mats, stuffed toys and animals and many other types of fanciwork,

Vecinas To Meet Thursday

Las Vecinas Woman's Club will hold its luncheon meeting tomorrow at noon at the Indian Village on Pacific Coast Highway.

During the business session, plans for the club's annual Christmas Dance will be made. The affair will be held this year on Dec. 18 at the Palos Verdes Country Club.

Another anticipated event on the club calendar will be the annual Christmas Musicales presented by the club's chorus under the direction of Mrs. E. R. Harvey. This event for members, their families, and friends will be held Dec. 8 at the Redondo Beach Woman's Club.

At the meeting tomorrow, the members be entertained by Miss Virginia Scott, folk singer.

Couple Set Jan. 22 As Nuptial Day

Miss Eugenea Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Eugene Cunningham, 1011 Teri Ave., will become the bride of Milton Roben in an eight o'clock ceremony on Jan. 22 at the First Methodist Church in Torrance.

The future bride was graduated from Torrance High school in 1962. She attended Woodbury College and is employed by the Home Savings and Loan Co. in Torrance.

Her fiancé, son of Mrs. Steven Jones, 2525 Lesserman Ave., Torrance, is also a Torrance High graduate. He served four years with the United States Navy and is now employed by a construction firm.

Birthday Party For President

Mrs. Dom Nardelli, president of Xi Zeta Lambda Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, was guest of honor at a birthday luncheon at the Loco's restaurant.

Members attending with the honoree were Mmes. William Guthormsen, Les Teeter, Helen O'Neil, Lester Mayfield, Raymond Millhouse and Mark Hulse.

EUGENEA CUNNINGHAM
... January Bride

Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson, 1611 Fern Ave. and Mrs. Anderson's mother and brother, Mrs. Mabel Rice and Robert Rice, also of Torrance, have returned from a two weeks vacation trip. The foursome visited the Grand Canyon, Zion, Bryce, Mammoth Lakes and Death Valley.

Hawaii Vacation

Mrs. Alma Smith, 1614 Amapola Ave., and Mrs. Ann Sorenson of Lomita returned by plane last Friday evening from a two weeks vacation in Hawaii. The travelers toured the outer islands and spent eight days in Honolulu.

Millers Host Gala Party For Kerbers

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Miller, 2313 W. 229th St., entertained at a Halloween farewell party at their home Saturday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kerber, who will be leaving in the near future for Boston, Mass., where Mr. Kerber has been transferred by his company.

Guests arrived in costumes bringing gag gifts for the Kerbers. Several games were played and dancing was enjoyed. A late buffet supper was served.

Attending the party with the hosts and the Kerbers were Messrs. and Mmes. George Post, J. A. Barrington, Robert Tolson, Don Moyer, Russell Thornberg, Fred Wilkes, Milt Youngken, and Mr. and Mrs. Van Sommers of Brea, formerly of Torrance.

Off to Germany

Mrs. John Guenther and son, Brian, 2833 Onrado, left Wednesday evening by plane for Frankfurt, Germany to visit Mr. Guenther's parents for three weeks. Mr. Guenther will go to Germany to join his family the first week in December.

IT'S POTLUCK FOR ALL . . . Members of the Torrance Chapter, City of Hope, are whipping up their favorite dishes for their annual "Harvest Hoedown" to be held Saturday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the Higgins Recreation room on Artesia Blvd. Giving this "potluck" food their undivided attention are, from left, Mmes. John Arensmyer, general chairman, and Bert Lynn, as Mrs. Jerome Scharfman, president, adds a bit of salt. Dinner will be followed by dancing and door prizes. Mrs. Arensmyer may be called for tickets for the hoedown, which benefits the City of Hope. (Press-Herald Photo)

HOLIDAY SHOPPING SPREE . . . Nativity Mothers Club invites the public to "Browse and Buy" at their Christmas Bazaar to be held Sunday from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the parish annex. Christmas gifts, decorations and many handmade items will be offered for sale. Refreshments will be served. Decorating a table holiday tree are, seated, from left, Mmes. Bob Frazer and Gilbert Bihn, as standing, Mrs. Hubert Habets is having a Christmas corsage pinned on by Mrs. William Korcheny. (Press-Herald Photo)